1 Objectives

The general terms and conditions regulate the membership in the SHED.Club at Dammstrasse 18 in 6300 Zug and are part of the admission to the SHED.Club.

The SHED.Club is operated by the Shed Estate AG, Dammstrasse 16 in 6300 Zug.

2 Membership

The memberships for the SHED.Club are issued by Shed Estate AG, Dammstrasse 16 in 6300 Zug. The membership is personal and non-transferable.

All advantages and offers which are offered to SHED.Club Members are (except for those stated in Section 4) not connected to, or any obligation with, the SHED.Club Members themselves. The SHED.Club members do not form an Association, nor do they enter any other social obligations with each other whatsoever.

3 Admission and Acquisition

An application for admission of a potential SHED.Club Member to the SHED.Club must be submitted to the admission committee of the SHED.Club. The admission committee decides on the admission of a new SHED.Club Member.

The admission committee has the right of refusal to the admission of a potential SHED.Club Member, at any time without reason.

One becomes a member of the SHED.Club through recommendation or referral by an existing potential SHED.Club Member and finally by the acquisition of a membership. Recommendations of new members can be submitted to the responsible persons at Shed Estate AG. A definitive acceptance or rejection regarding SHED.Club Membership can only be made after examination by the admission committee has been conducted.

4 SHED Membership

The SHED.Club Membership is established by the admission (stated to Section 3) and the full payment of the membership fees (Voucher, Administration Fee and On-boarding Fee) and the code of conduct. The On-boarding Fee is a one-time service per admission to SHED.Club. Purchases of services that are not related to the SHED.Club cannot be paid with the SHED.Club Membership Card. The membership is valid for the SHED.Club, SHED.Bar & Cigar, SHED.Event and SHED.Market.

Shed Estate AG offer two types of membership:

Private Membership

The membership can only be issued to one person or a company. The spouse is entitled to enter the SHED.Club without the presence of the club member and to make reservations for himself and his guests. The spouse may settle the bill for consumption with the membership credit if the membership was issued to a person. If the membership was issued to a company the consumption credit is not available to the spouse.

Corporate Membership

This membership is issued for a company and grants three persons defined by name the entrance to the SHED.Club. The spouse can visit the SHED.Club without being accompanied by the member. The three defined members can be adapted or changed during the year by the authorised signatories of the company for a fee. The spouse is entitled to enter the SHED.Club without the presence of the Corporate Club member and to make reservations for himself and his guests. The bill for consumption must be paid on site (cash / card). The paid-in consumption credit of the Corporate Membership is not available to the spouse.

The name of the spouse must be deposited with the SHED.Club. Guests of the member and the spouse can visit the SHED.Club in the presence of the SHED.Club member or the spouse.

5 Number of Club Members
